

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2022

Mount Surprise State School will receive

$11,117

This funding will be used to

Improve Reading and Writing to achieve the following results:

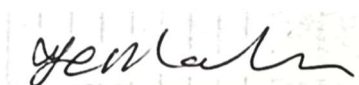

- 80% students achieve a C or above for English moderated tasks
- 25% achieve A or B in English
- 100% students make progress in the reading aspects of the Literacy Continuum.
- 100% students showing improvement on PLD phonics placement tests
- 80% students will achieve appropriate cluster in Literacy Continuum

Our initiatives include

- Embed the Inclusive Teaching of Reading Model.
- Employ and build capability of teachers and teacher aides to provide effective teaching of reading.
- Identify the reading and writing demands of each unit across each learning area.
- Participate in moderation activities.
- Provide relevant staffing and resources to support effective teaching of reading and writing.

Our school will improve student outcomes by

Purchase teaching staff to support effective teaching	$6,000
Resources and professional learning	$5,117
TOTAL	$11,117

Jade Maksan
Principal
Mount Surprise State School

Michael De'Ath
Director-General
Department of Education

Queensland Government